History of American presidential elections, 1789-1984

Author: Arthur M Schlesinger, Jr.; Fred L Israel; William P Hansen
Rating: (not yet rated)
Subjects: Presidents -- United States -- Election -- History.
United States -- Politics and government.
Presidents -- Etats-Unis -- Election -- Histoire.

Description: 4 volumes (xxxvii, 3959 pages) ; 24 cm + 1 supplemental volume (xvii, 372 pages ; 24 cm.)

Contents:
V. 1. 1789-1844 --
  v. 2. 1848-1896 --
  v. 3. 1900-1936 --
  v. 4. 1940-1968 --
Letter from Alexander Hamilton to Theodore Sedgwick, October 9, 1788 --
Letter from Jeremiah Wadsworth to Alexander Hamilton, February (n.d.), 1789 --
Presidential power: 1787; 1804; 1969 --
Personal memorandum of James Madison, May 25, 1792 --
Excerpts from a letter from Thomas Jefferson to president George Washington, May 23, 1792 --
Letter from Alexander Hamilton to president George Washington, July - August, 1792 --
Excerpts from a letter from Edmund Randolph to president George Washington, August 5, 1792 --
Reply from president George Washington to Edmund Randolph, August 26, 1792 --
Excerpt from a letter from Alexander Hamilton to John Steele, October 18, 1792 --
Election of 1796 / Page Smith : The Jay Treaty, November 19, 1794 --
President George Washington's Farewell address, New York, September 17, 1796 --
John Adams' Inaugural address, Philadelphia, March 4, 1797 --
Electoral vote --
Letter of Alexander Hamilton on John Adams, 1800 --

 Electoral vote --

 Election of 1804 / Manning Dauer : Republican platform, 1804 -- Federalist platform, 1804 -- Electoral vote --

 Election of 1808 / Irving Brant : Editorial from the Washington national intelligencer, January 25, 1808 --

 Election of 1812 / Norman K. Risjord : The Clinton platform, 1812 --

 Address from the South Carolina assembly to president James Madison, Charleston, September 1, 1812 --

 Letter from Rufus King to Christopher Gore, September 19, 1812 --

 Editorials from the Columbian centinel, Boston, October 28, 31, 1812 --

 Electoral vote --

 Elections of 1816 and 1820 / Lynn W. Turner : Resolutions adopted by the Hartford convention, Hartford, December 15, 1814 --

 President James Madison's seventh annual message to congress, Washington, December 5, 1815 --

 James Monroe's inaugural address, Washington, March 4, 1817 --

 Address in behalf of the citizens of Hartford to president James Monroe, June 23, 1817 --

 Address by president of Harvard college John T. Kirkland to president James Monroe, Cambridge, July 7, 1817 --

 Address in behalf of the citizens of Portsmouth to president James Monroe, July 12, 1817 --

 Letter from governor William Plumer to president James Monroe, July 18, 1817 --

 Excerpt from William Plumer papers --

 Electoral vote --

 Election of 1824 / James F. Hopkins : John Quincy Adams, memoirs --

 Recommendation of Henry Clay for the presidency, Frankfort, November 18, 1822 --

 Presidential nomination of secretary of state John Quincy Adams, Boston, January 23, 1823 --

 Letter from general Andrew Jackson to the Dauphin country committee, February 23, 1823 --

 Declaration of New York republican caucus, April 22, 1823 --

 Declaration of support for general Andrew Jackson, Philadelphia, October 1823 --

 Presidential nomination of secretary of war John C. Calhoun, Columbia, November 29, 1823 --

 Letter from speaker of the house Henry Clay to Francis Preston Blair, January 8, 1825 --

 Letter from speaker of the house Henry Clay to Francis Preston Blair, January 29, 1825 --

 Popular and electoral vote --

 Election of 1828 / Robert V. Remini : Editorials from the national intelligencer, March - April, 1827 --

 Editorial from the United States telegraph, May 4, 1827 --

 Editorial from the Steubenville, Pennsylvania, leger, May 17, 1827 --

 Open letter from the Nashville central committee, reprinted in the United States telegraph, June 22, 1827 --

 National republican campaign statements, reprinted in the national intelligencer, January - November, 1828 --

 Editorial from the United States telegraph, September 11, 1828 --

 The coffin handbill --

 Popular and electoral vote --

 Election of 1832 / Robert V. Remini : Report on the anti-masonic convention in the Niles' register, October 8, 29, 1831 --

 Report on the republican convention in the Niles' register, December 24, 1831 --

 Report on the democratic convention in the Niles' register, May 26, 1832 --

 Popular and electoral vote --

 Election of 1836 / Joel H. Silbey : Letter from North Carolina citizens to Martin Van Buren, February 23, 1836 --

 Martin Van Buren's reply, March 6, 1836 --

 Letter from Sherrod Williams to general William Henry Harrison, April 7, 1836 --

 General William Henry Harrison's reply, May 1, 1836 --

 Judge Hugh White's reply, July 2, 1836 --

 Statement by the democratic republicans of the United States, Washington, July 31, 1835 --

 Excerpt from a speech by John Bell, Nashville, July (n.d.), 1835 --

 Popular and electoral vote --

 Election of 1840 / William Nisbet Chambers : Democratic platform --

 Editorial by Abraham Lincoln from the Sangamo journal, November 3, 1838 --

 Letter from general William Henry Harrison to representative Harmar Denny, December 2, 1838 --

 Proceedings of the Whig national convention, Harrisburg, December 4, 1839 --

 Proceedings of the democratic national convention, Baltimore, May 5, 6, 1840 --

 Letter from president Martin Van Buren to the democratic citizens committee, July 4, 1840 --

 Speech by general William Henry Harrison, Dayton, September 10, 1840 --

 Election of 1844 / Charles Sellers : Democratic platform --

 Liberty platform --